That the expense to the State of conveying the convicts to the Penitentiary and insane to the Asylum during the last two fiscal years has been about $40 000 which in the opinion of the committee may be reduced by the enactment of laws for which bills have been already introduced allowing to sheriffs for such services only $[illegible] per day for time actually and necessarily employed and the amount of their actual and necessary traveling expenses in conveying convicts to the Penitentiary and Asylum and returning therefrom to the sum for the ensuing two years of $30,000 thereby making a reduction of about $[illegible] 000, making the grand total of the reduction proposed $[illegible]

H B 101—To provide for the election of Superintendent of the Penitentiary

Mr MAYS asked unanimous consent to the introduction of an amendment providing for the election of Superintendent by a Joint Committee of this Legislature to hold office until the next general election

Mr GALLOWAY objected

Mr FLORENCE asked unanimous consent to introduce an amendment limiting the salary of Superintendent to $1,500

Mr PLYMALE objected

Mr GALLOWAY thought the people demanded the passage of this bill. He opposed the election of Superintendent by the Legislature because there was enough for that body to do. The office was one of great influence and it was charged that it was used to manipulate political affairs. It might be so used and to prevent such a result he thought the proper way was to make the office responsible directly to the people

Mr MAYS desired to state some of the reasons why he should vote against this bill. He should vote against it because he believed it was introduced to smother another bill providing for the election of Superintendent by the Legislature. While he did not dispute that the [illegible] holding that office had discharged his duties very well still there were many points in which improvements might be made.

Mr FIDLER said while this Independent party had been formed upon professed principle of opposition to politicians it seemed to him they had manifested a voracity which would not be satisfied by all the offices in the State. It was the purpose by hook or crook to get possession of this office though they do not deny that the present incumbent is an efficient and faithful officer

Mr BARLOW did not [illegible] why the salary of the Superintendent had been raised two hundred dollars by this bill. He certainly could not see why gentlemen pledged to reform should vote for increasing this salary

Mr GALLOWAY did not question the motion of the gentleman from Wasco (Mr Mays) but the charge that this bill was introduced for the purpose of defeating any other bill before this House was incorrect. He had not introduced the bill at anybody's suggestion, but because he believed it was the correct principle for the people to elect the Superintendent of the Penitentiary

Mr STEEN was in favor of parts of this bill but was opposed to that feature increasing the pay of the Superintendent. He was aware that not many of the State officers would get rich when they received what only belonged to them. But we are already paying all we can afford. He therefore moved to refer to a special committee of five for amendment, which motion was lost and a motion by Mr RIDDLE to lay on the table prevailed

H B 110—To prevent and punish the spread of contagious diseases passed

H B 113, substitute for H B 2—To provide for the compensation of the private secretary of the Governor. Upon the question shall the bill pass the vote resulted as follows

Yeas—Brown Bruce Butler Chambers Cornell Cranston Curl Darst Dufur Gilbert Jackson Johnson Kelly of Benton Kelly of Multnomah Lame Laughlin Lee Mays Scott Simpson Stearns Steen Stott Stump Wasson Mr Speaker—26

Nays—Blake Bradshaw Chandler Crawford Dean Doak Dully Fidler Florence Gearin Hays Ledgerwood Matlock Mathieu McGugin McClung Noyer Partlow Plymale Reed of Clackamas Reed of Marion Roe Ross Shelton Stannard Van Riper Wilson Wright of Jackson—[illegible]

H B 114, to repeal sections 9 21 and 2[illegible] of chapter 1 of the general laws providing for clerical aid for the Secretary of State

Mr BRADSHAW asked unanimous consent to offer an amendment by limiting the amount of compensation for clerical aid to $1,000 to which Mr Fidler objected

Mr STOTT moved to refer to a special committee of three for amendment with instruction to report at 3 o clock P M to-day. The motion prevailed and the Speaker appointed as such committee Messrs Stott Bradshaw and Stearns

H B 115 substitute for H B 68 to amend the city charter of Portland

Pending the question of the passage of this bill the House, on motion of Mr LAUGHLIN adjourned

Afternoon Session.

The House resumed at 1 ½ P M

Indefinite leave of absence was granted Mr Stott of Multnomah called from Salem on account of the illness of his brother

PORTLAND POLICE BILL

The question pending being the passage of the Portland Police bill

Mr REED of Marion contended the sections in the bill giving power to declare offices vacant and placing the appointment of the Police Commissioners in the hands of the Governor the District Judge and the Mayor. If the delegation from Multnomah were satisfied with the bill he should vote for it but he was much mistaken if this measure met the views of the citizens of Portland. This bill provided simply for a jumping out of the frying pan into the fire

Mr CORNELL said the bill passed to its third reading without any knowledge on the part of the House of its contents. There were many objectionable features in the bill and he for one was not satisfied with it

Mr GEARIN drew attention to the fact that the bill was not correctly engrossed and he moved that it be referred to the Engrossing Committee with instructions to report at any time which motion prevailed

H B 116 substitute for [illegible]—Providing for the official distribution of the revised code was passed by a unanimous vote

THE SECRETARY OF STATE.

Mr BRADSHAW in the absence of Mr Stott reported back H B 114 relative to the remuneration of the Secretary of State recommending amendments under which the extra compensation would amount to $1 000

Mr BROWN moved to adopt the report. Carried

The bill as amended was then read to the House

Mr FIDLER objected to the bill inasmuch as it estimated the labors of the Secretary of State as of less value than those of a County Clerk. He stated that the committee of investigation who reported on the State bill had not had sufficient opportunity to judge of the work of Secretary of State and the fact had not to be [illegible] that this officer was frequently called upon to perform legal duties for which he received no compensation whatever. But it had also been [illegible] that his burdens would be materially increased by the action of the present Legislature. The disposition of the House seemed to be to increase his burdens in proportion as they cut down his salary.

The bill was passed by the following vote

Yeas—Bradshaw Brown, Bruce Butler Chandler Chambers Cornell Crawford Cranston Curl, Darst Dean Dufur Fidler Galloway Gearin Gilbert Hays Jackson Johnson Kelly of Benton Kelly of Multnomah Lame Laughlin Lee Mays Matlock Mathieu McGugin McClung Noyer Partlow Reed of Clackamas Reed of Marion Riddle Roe Ross Scott Shelton Simpson Stearns Steen Stump Wasson Mr Speaker—4[illegible]

Nays—Blake Doak Dully Fidler Plymale Stannard VanRiper Wilson Wright of Jackson Wright of Union—10

Absent—Jewett Ledgerwood Rinearson Shedd and Stott—

THE TEMPERANCE BILL

H B [illegible]—REED of Marion to provide remedies for the evils resulting from the sale of intoxicating liquors then came up on third reading.

Mr JOHNSON asked but failed to obtain unanimous consent to amend by striking out section 1[illegible] which provides for the payment of compensation to persons who may have to take charge of a drunken man

Mr STEEN submitted that if sections 1[illegible] and 16 which were the civil damage provisions in the bill were stricken out a very strong license law instead would remain. He believed that if the bill was adopted with these two sections it would give rise to endless litigation

Mr CRANSTON reminded the House that petitions had been sent in signed by vast numbers of citizens asking for local option and civil damage laws and he reminded the Independents particularly that they had a plank in their platform in favor of temperance legislation. Local option in the common acceptation of the term was not included in the bill but there was a civil damage provision

Mr FLORENCE did not think the Independents on that floor who were elected on county platforms were bound by any plank that might have been inserted in the State platform. He was opposed to the bill because it attempted too much

Mr CRANSTON called upon the friends of Temperance to remember their vow and let those who were not with them go on the record against them

Mr BUTLER was elected on the Independent ticket and was bound by the platform on which he stood to vote for the bill

Mr JOHNSON spoke at some length against section 1[illegible] and was replied to by Mr BROWN

Mr REED of Marion said there was not a friend of temperance on that floor who could refuse to support the bill [illegible] of question

Mr GEARIN was willing to support the bill if sections 1[illegible] and [illegible] were stricken out and if the House had a due regard to temperance they would see that these sections were stricken out or reject the bill. He for one was not afraid to go upon the record against the bill in its present shape

Mr BRADSHAW had no objection to section [illegible]. If a man made another drunk he ought to be held responsible but he objected to section [illegible] in which exemplary as well as actual damages are provided for

Mr ROSS next spoke against the bill

Mr REED of Marion replied that the section to which objection had been taken was copied verbatim from laws that had been enacted and sustained in other States the opinion of the gentleman from Multnomah (Mr Gearin) as to the constitutionality of the bill to the contrary notwithstanding. Pass the bill without these sections, and it would be just such a law as liquor dealers would ask for. He had been informed that $10 000 had been raised in Portland with which to fight this bill. He did not pretend to say that this money had been used in that Legislature. He did not think it had. The temperance element was too strong to permit of such a thing but the money had been raised. He had had the information from a liquor dealer himself [Cries of Question]

Mr GALLOWAY moved to refer to a special committee of three. Lost.

On the question Shall the bill pass? the vote stood

Yeas—Brown Bruce Butler Chandler Chambers Cornell Crawford Cranston Darst Dean Fidler Gilbert, Kelly of Benton Kelly of Multnomah Lame Laughlin Lee Ledgerwood Mays Mathieu McClung Partlow Plymale Reed of Marion Riddle Rinearson Roe Scott, Simpson Stannard Stearns, Stump Wasson, Wilson Wright of Union Mr Speaker—36

Nays—Blake Bradshaw Curl, Doak Dufur Dully Florence Galloway Gearin, Hays Jackson Johnson McGugin Noyer Reed of Clackamas Ross Shelton Steen Van Riper—19

Absent—Jewett Matlock Shedd and Stott—4

Before the vote was announced Florence changed from aye to no

So the Temperance bill passed the House.

Mr GEARIN arose and said: "I wish to protest against this bill and I wish my protest to go upon the record on the ground that it is unconstitutional inoperative and void"

The SPEAKER—The gentleman will put his protest in writing and send it to the Clerk and it will go upon the journal. The Chair will make one suggestion. The gentleman will have to state that in his opinion it is unconstitutional

Mr GEARIN—The Chair will admit that that is the way I wished to frame my protest

THE STATE TREASURER.

H B 60—Mr PLYMALE, to create the office of Assistant Treasurer at a salary of $1 500 came up on third reading and was lost by the following vote

Yeas—Bradshaw Chandler Crawford Cranston Doak Fidler Galloway, Gearin Hays Jackson Matlock Mathieu McGugin Noyer Plymale Reed of Clackamas Reed of Marion Roe Ross Shelton Stannard Van Riper Wasson Wilson Wright of Jackson Wright of Union Mr Speaker—27

Nays—Blake Brown Bruce Butler, Chambers Cornell Curl Darst Dean Dufur Dully Florence Gilbert Johnson Kelly of Benton Kelly of Multnomah Lame Laughlin Lee Ledgerwood Mays McClung Partlow Riddle Rinearson Scott Simpson Stearns Steen Stump—30

Absent—Jewett Shedd and Stott

Subsequently Mr BRUCE moved to reconsider the vote by which the bill failed to pass

Mr McCLUNG moved to indefinitely postpone the motion to reconsider which was voted down by 11 to 10

The motion to reconsider was carried by 39 to 17

Mr REED of Marion then moved to strike out $1 500 and insert $1 000

Mr STEEN moved to amend by inserting $800.

The SPEAKER—The Chair is of the opinion that the bill cannot be amended without unanimous consent

Mr CHAMBERS—I object to anything further being done with it.

Mr MATLOCK then moved to refer the bill to a special committee of three with instructions to report at any time

Mr RIDDLE moved to amend by instructing the committee to amend the bill by inserting $800. Lost.

The motion to refer prevailed and the Speaker appointed as the committee Messrs Matlock Bruce and Dufur

THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT

H B 8—Mr BRADSHAW amending the law with regard to the times and places of holding the Supreme and Circuit Courts was passed without dissent. The bill provides that the Circuit Courts shall be held in the Third Judicial District as follows. In Linn county on the second Monday in March and the fourth in October. In Marion on the fourth Monday in February the second in June and the third in October. In Yamhill on the fourth Monday in March and the first in October. In Polk on the second Monday in May and the first in December

SENATE BILLS ON THIRD READING

S B 3—Amending the act establishing a uniform course of public instruction by providing for the levying of a tax at district meetings was lost by a vote of 18 to [illegible]

S B 18—Providing for the claims arising out of the Modoc war. The bill provides for the issuing of state bonds to the several claimants for the amount due to each payable at the option of the State on or before January 1880 with interest at the rate of [illegible] per cent. per annum

The bill gave rise to a long debate. It was passed by a vote of 31 to 1[illegible]

House then adjourned till 7 P M

Evening Session.

The House resumed at the appointed hour

Mr BRUCE presented a report signed by himself and Mr Bruce from the special committee on H B 60 relative to the appointment of an Assistant Treasurer and recommended that the bill be amended by fixing the salary at eight hundred instead of fifteen hundred dollars

Mr MATLOCK presented a minority report recommending that the salary be one thousand dollars

Mr FIDLER moved to adopt the minority report on which the ayes and noes were demanded

Yeas—Bradshaw Chandler Crawford Cranston Darst Doak Fidler Galloway Gearin Gilbert Hays Jackson Kelly of Benton Kelly of Multnomah Lame Ledgerwood Matlock McGugin Noyer Plymale Reed of Marion Roe Ross Shedd Shelton Stannard Stearns Van Riper Wilson Wright of Jackson Wright of Union—3[illegible]

Nays—Blake Brown Bruce Butler Chambers Cornell Curl Dean Dully Florence Johnson Laughlin Lee Mays McClung Partlow Riddle Rinearson Scott Steen, Stump Wasson, Mr Speaker—[illegible]3

So the minority report was adopted

The question recurred on the passage of the bill as amended

Mr BROWN was greatly surprised at this vote. When the bill was before the House it was voted down and it seemed to him that some extraordinary influence must have been at work to induce men to change their minds

Mr BRADSHAW reminded the gentleman from Polk (Brown) that wise men change their minds—fools never

The bill was voted down because many members thought $1 500 was too high a salary and it was now apparent that a majority of the members were favorable to a salary of $1 000

Mr CHAMBERS said that bill after bill was being passed by very much the same vote. He did not say any person was implicated in wrong doing but he said some persons were being influenced to vote for certain bills to which they were opposed in order to get their own bills through. He opposed this bill because he believed it to be an outrage. Adding the present salary of the Treasurer to the percentages he was allowed his income for the next two years would amount to $4000 and he considered this amply sufficient for any one office without any extra remuneration. The fact was it was all done in order to get some other bills through

The SPEAKER—The gentleman will not impugn the motives of other members

Mr CHAMBERS—I am not impugning their motives. I am trying to tell facts.

Messrs GALLOWAY and MATLOCK replied to Mr CHAMBERS and challenged him to prove that the Treasurer would receive anything like $4 000 a year. The bill with the salary fixed at $1,000, was passed by a vote of 38 to 19

S B 20—Repealing the office of State Geologist was lost by a vote of 17 to 3[illegible]

S B 10[illegible]—Amending the Act incorporating the city of Corvallis was read twice and referred to a special committee of three Messrs Chambers, Bruce and Kelly of Benton

SENATE BILLS INTRODUCED

S B [illegible]4—Authorizing the Governor to contract with Dr J C Hawthorne for the keeping of the insane and idiotic at a cost not to exceed $5 50 per patient per week

S B [illegible]—For the protection of salmon, read twice and referred to a special committee of three consisting of Messrs Dean Dully and Stearns

S B 94—To amend the Incorporation Act of the city of Harrisburg read twice and filed for third reading

S B 10[illegible], for relief of Grant county to the extent of $635

Senate joint resolution in favor of a Congressional law regulating a close time for salmon fishing on the Columbia river was concurred in by a vote of 46 to eight.

S J M relating to the taxation of United States bonds and S J R for a joint convention on Wednesday at 2 P M to elect a State Librarian, Clerk of the Supreme Court and three Pilot Commissioners were also concurred in

S J M for Congressional aid in the construction of the Southern Oregon wagon road was concurred in

At 9 10 P M House adjourned to meet to-morrow (Tuesday) morning at 8 o clock in obedience to a motion by Mr STANNARD to that effect.

Mr GEARIN moved that the Sergeant at Arms be instructed to call at the boarding houses in the morning and wake up the members—which motion did not prevail there being a doubt whether the functionary in question would be on deck early enough himself

FROM THE CAPITAL

SALEM, October 19, 1874

The great Fair is over, and the streets of Salem are once more serene as the bosom of the chief of the Saints. In a few days the Legislature will be no more. Already adjournment is being discussed—with much nervousness and many apprehensions by those of the Third House whose bills are on the table, in committee, or some other secluded place—with undisguised pleasure by most of the members

THE WORK OF THE SESSION

Is almost concluded. A few important bills remain to be passed, among which I note the Fee Bill Mr VanCleave's Portland Police Bill the Registry Bill and the bill awarding the contract for keeping the insane

THE PENITENTIARY

The report of the committee appointed to inspect the books and accounts of Wm H Watkinds Superintendent of the Penitentiary, has not yet been submitted. For several days there have been current rumors that inte[illegible]ing disclosures are about to be made, and it has even been said that the report will show grave irregularities. Thus far I have been unable to trace the reports to any reliable source but have been informed by a gentleman who has reason to know whereof he speaks that the forthcoming report will not make such a showing

The bill making the office of Superintendent of the Penitentiary elective by the people is under discussion in the House this morning. Mr Galloway supports it with considerable energy but it meets with strong opposition

THE REGISTRY BILL

Passed the House last Sunday morning by a decisive vote. Yeas 3[illegible], nays, 27. Excellent speeches were made by Representatives Stott Reed Gearin Dufur, Steen, Cornell and Cranston for the bill. Mr Cornell's remarks would not occupy twenty lines in the OREGONIAN but they were full of meaning and sound sense. His reminiscences of twelve years service as Judge of Election in Multnomah county were pointed and forcible. Mr Steen was equally concise and sensible. The latter gentleman is one of the best speakers in the House, to my idea and when he rises he always commands respectful attention. Mr Reed is also listened to by the House. The opinion was generally expressed that his speech in support of the Registry Bill was quite superior to any of his former efforts save that on the Capitol appropriation

Mr Dufur has manifested a warm interest in the bill ever since its introduction. In a single sentence he disposed of the objections which had been made on the ground of economy by Speaker Drain and Mr Brown of Polk. Those who argued and voted against the measure based their opposition on two points 1 Because there is little or no fraud in elections outside of Multnomah county and therefore (2) the bill imposed upon a majority of the counties needless and useless expense. One fact was ignored by Messrs Drain and Brown—that an illegal vote for State officers in Multnomah county injures Douglas county or Union county just as much and prevents a free and equal election just as effectually as if cast in Douglas or Union

Besides this, it is a notorious fact that in former years the grossest frauds have been perpetrated in Polk Yamhill and Clackamas counties by colonization or the importation of votes. It is charged that frauds of this kind were practiced in Marion county at the last general election. The member from Polk was sadly out of his reckoning and of this he was pleasantly reminded by Mr Gearin. There was some plausibility in the objections urged by Mr Drain albeit he was sensibly much embarrassed by a conviction that the bill ought to become a law but there was not the shadow of an excuse for Mr Brown's opposition on his own showing

The bill now goes to the Senate where it will meet with favorable consideration from a majority of the Senators, as I am informed. Next to the Metropolitan Police Bill this Registry Act is the most important measure now pending according to my notion of matter and things before the Legislature

THE PORTLAND POLICE BILL

In the Senate last Friday evening the report of the Multnomah delegation to whom had been referred Mr Dolph's Police Bill was called up. Senators Dolph and Hirsch presented a majority report recommending that the bill pass

Senator VanCleave submitted the following Minority Report

Mr President—The minority of your Select Committee to whom was referred Senate bill No 56, has had the same under consideration and respectfully reports that in his opinion said bill ought not to pass for the following reasons

First—That some of the most important provisions of said bill are against the best interests and contrary to the known wishes of a large majority of the taxpayers and best citizens of the City of Portland

Second—That in the opinion of the undersigned the passage of said bill would constitute the Police Department of said city an engine of political corruption with which to pack primaries and control elections

Third—That the police system proposed in said bill would give to the worst class of voters in said City of Portland an undue and improper influence over the judicial and executive heads of the Police Department. The undersigned further urges the importance of separating the said Police Department as far as possible from all political influence and control thus rendering it independent of both roughs and political wire workers.

The undersigned therefore reports the accompanying bill as a substitute for said Senate bill No 56, with the recommendation that it pass.

All of which is respectfully submitted

J S M VAN CLEAVE.

A compend of the provisions of Senator Van Cleave's substitute will be furnished you

A WARM DEBATE

Followed the motion to adopt the substitute in the course of which Mr Van Cleave favored the Senate with a vigorous review of the f[illegible] and corruptions practiced by the Custom House Ring in elections since Senator John Hiram H—Mitchell's entrance into the politics of Multnomah county. There was a sensation when Mr Van Cleave held up a photographic copy of that famous subscription paper on which the names of J N and C A Dolph appear as $100 contributors to an election fund. Mr Hirsch very injudiciously asked if the original was in existence, or something of that kind to which Mr Van Cleave replied that he thought it could be produced if the authenticity of the copy was disputed. But Senator Dolph did not open his mouth. He was discreetly silent

The debate was resumed on Saturday morning when Senator Myers of Clackamas made a stirring speech in support of the substitute. I regret to say that Senator Owens of Douglas county was found in Ring company on this occasion when his vote would have been desirable on the substitute. The people of Multnomah county have some reason to expect better things, and I hope that when the bill comes up on its passage Senator Owens will reconsider his injurious and unwise course.

This morning the House had the bill under consideration at the hour of adjournment. It will probably pass the Senate by a bare Constitutional majority, and receive a larger vote in the Lower House

THE DALLES AND SANDY WAGON ROAD BILL

Passed the House this morning by a vote of Ayes, 36 Noes, 19

Mr Chambers opposed the bill at length but to little effect, while it was ably supported by the members from [illegible] Oregon conspicuous among whom were Messrs Dufur and Mays, of Wasco. The bill provides that until the Swamp Land money set apart for this purpose shall become available the Treasurer shall pay out of any moneys in his hands not otherwise appropriated, interest on the bonds of the company (to the amount of $38,000 bonds I mean) at the rate of 7 per cent per annum

THE INSANE.

The Senate this morning rejected a proposition offered by Mr Bristow, that the Governor be authorized to contract with any responsible party for the keeping of the insane during the next four years at a rate not to exceed $5 50 per week. Subsequently the bill awarding the contract to Dr Hawthorne at $5 50 per week, passed

TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 20, 1874.

A MERRY DEBATE.

One of the merriest debates of the session took place in the Senate Chamber last Friday night and Saturday, between Van Cleave and Dolph, both of this county. The subject matter of the discussion was the Portland Police Bill. Dolph raised the old and ridiculous cry about self-government, which he dwelt on at some length, charging in various forms, that Van Cleave's substitute for his ring bill was a measure to deprive the people of the right of election. Van Cleave, in the course of his reply, showed how sacred the right of a pure election was held by Dolph and his ring, by reading a list of subscriptions of the corruptionists to the fund raised to debauch the city election of 1873. Most of our readers have seen this document, but it will bear re-reading. Here it is:

PORTLAND, June 10 1873.

We, whose names are hereunto annexed, agree to contribute for the purposes of the ensuing election, the amounts set opposite our names:

H. W. Scott	$400	J. McCraken	$250
O. N. Denny	500	H. B. Oatman & Co	50
L. M. Lewis	100	Hawley, Dodd & Co	100
Geo. E. Cole	100	Wm. Masters	25
O. B. Gibson	100	M. Crawford	200
M. F. Mulkey	125	W. H. Harris	200
W. S. Chapman	100	J. M. Caywood	200
F. M. Shurtleff	200	Geo. H. Flanders	100
J. P. Ward	100	Cash	100
L. B[illegible]	50	Noah Lambert	50
L. P. W. Quimby	100	J. P. Rogers	20
J[illegible] Lotan	25	Thos. G. Young	100
D. J. Malarkey	50	J. N. Dolph }	100
L. H. Briggs	50	C. A. Dolph }

Van Cleave explained as he went along who these persons were, nearly every one a Federal, State or city official. Dolph sat livid with rage. His man Hirsch, at the close of the reading, sprang to his feet and asked Mr. Van Cleave if the persons whose names he had read had acknowledged their signatures to be genuine, to which Van Cleave said he held in his hand a photographic copy of the original document showing the dotting of every i and the crossing of every t, and that he could produce the original itself; that he did know not whether the signatures had been admitted or not, but if they were denied he could prove them by fifty witnesses. This settled Mr. Hirsch for the remainder of the evening. Dolph's reply was weak indeed. He did not attempt to deny the charge of Mr. Van Cleave. He preserved his temper, however, very creditably; better in fact than any person supposed he could do. The next day the discussion was renewed with increased violence, but without any material alteration of substance. All in all, it was such a scene as only such a state of facts as that connected with the ring corruptions in this city could have produced.

THE POLICE BILL.

That Dolph's Police Bill was merely a device to enable the Ring Republicans to use the immense power of the police to get control of the city, is demonstrated in the [illegible] with which the ring members of the Legislature rush to the fray. They pounce upon the non-partisan substitute with more energy than they have before exhibited in any matter. And then they are at the perfect understanding on the subject. The arguments of one are the [illegible] arguments of all the rest. The substitute spoils a nice little game of theirs to get the benefit of a vast patronage to corrupt the city elections and they are consequently in a peck thrown—into the greatest consternation.

The people of Portland are in favor of the bill as now pending because

1st. It will reduce the expenses of the Police Department at least $12,000 a year, without impairing its efficiency;

2d. While it preserves the power in the people to limit the number of policemen, through the Common Council, it keeps the police force free from the temptation to make bargains with rough and dangerous classes for support at the polls.

3d. By providing for the choosing of a Police Judge by the Mayor and Common Council, it preserves to the people of the city the choice of that office indirectly, at the same time removing him from the influence of the disorderly classes with whom he has mostly to deal in the administration of justice.

4th. It gives the designation of one of the Police Commissioners to the Mayor, who, as the experience of the city as well as the theory of his office, proves, has more intimate knowledge of the wants of the city in this respect than any other person.

5th. It secures the city against the use of its police force for the purpose of assisting political rings of any party in elections, making it a police force, strictly, not a machine to carry elections with. This last is no unimportant matter to a people who have seen the laws trampled upon and the will of the people defeated by corrupt rings as has been the case in Portland.

THE CROP OF "STATEMENTS."

This is an uncommonly good year for "statements." The crop has been larger than was ever seen before. Commencing with Tilton's first and preliminary performance, Brooklyn produced enough for all local demands and a large surplus, in the course of the "great scandal." There were three from Tilton, two from Beecher, two from Moulton, one or more each from the numerous collaterals of the Beecher family, and an average of one apiece from all the chief priests and apostles of free love and the kindred wildcat gospels that have tainted society of late years. And then, before the stench of the Brooklyn pot had fairly subsided, came the Penn coup d' etat in Louisiana, with "statements" and bayonets in about equal numbers—and such statements! Kellogg ran away and locked himself in the custom house; and as soon as the key was turned he sat down to write a "statement." General Emory dethroned Penn and decapitated the State officers he had installed; and forthwith Penn rushed to the footlights with a "statement" as long as a Georgia five-cent cigar, to be followed in quick succession by "statements" from the conservative committee, from the Republican committee, from the "colored people of Louisiana," and at last from M[illegible] B. F. Butler and Matt. H. Carpenter.

And to what end have all these documents [illegible] attempt to deceive on some particular point, and not one of them but is taken with large grains of allowance by even the most credulous. A few months more of this rank growth of "statements," all bearing internal evidences that they are to a large extent intentionally false, and it will prejudice any case in the eyes of the public for an interested party to say a word about it.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY POLITICS.

We are glad to be able to record so cheering an account as given by our reporter this morning of the status of Pierce county, W. T. on the question of who shall be Delegate to Congress. We have no acquaintance with Mr. Sharpstein and therefore can not say but he is a very suitable man for Delegate; but knowing Judge Jacobs personally, and knowing him for a first-class man who is far above the corruptions that have in late years lost to the Republican party so much of prestige, we should feel gratified at his election, as we should regard it as a triumph of honesty and morality in the Republican party—a rare thing now-a-days. It will probably be conceded that we are not wishing for Judge Jacobs' election on partisan grounds. We are of the opinion the question of Republican and Democrat is entirely too insignificant a matter to be made the basis of a contest for the Delegateship from Washington Territory, in the present situation of affairs. What the people of that Territory want is a man in Congress who will be above party programmes, above partisan squabbles, above the petty jealousies of local politicians, above every thing that may tend to impair his power to help the people of the Territory: A man who will make his first and last care attend to the great wants of the Northwest Coast and especially of Washington Territory.

MATT. CARPENTER'S SUCCESSOR.

Ex-Governor Washburn is to be the most formidable opponent of Matt Carpenter for the Senate before the Legislature of that State. He is now engaged in stumping the State for the Republicans. His platform is, rigid enforcement of the Potter law against the railway monopolists; a speedy return to specie payments; and opposition to a treaty of reciprocity with Canada. He has great faith in the ability of the Republican party to restore order in the South and economical government throughout the Republic, but believes that in order to do this it will be necessary for the party to "cast out devils" from its own body on a very liberal scale —in which last proposition most rational people will agree with him.

Upon such a platform as that he ought certainly to get away with Carpenter. But when he gets to Washington he will find small sympathy with his views among the Senators sent there by his party.

From present appearances, says an exchange, the parties who will be the most benefited by the Beecher scandal are the lawyers. There are now only thirteen suits pending, which are side issues growing out of the main one; as follows: 1. The suit by Tilton against Beecher for $100,000 damages. 2, 3 and 4. The suits by Tilton against the Brooklyn Eagle, New York World and Tribune for $100,000 each. 5, 6 and 7. The three suits of Henry C. Bowen against the Brooklyn Eagle. 8. The suit of Henry C. Bowen against a reporter of the last named paper—the four involving $350,000. 9 and 10. Miss Proctor's suits against Moulton and the Graphic, $100,000 each. 11. Second suit of Miss Proctor against Moulton, for libel. 12 and 13. The two suits of Beecher against Moulton and Tilton, recently brought. In addition to these there are rumors of a suit for divorce by Mrs. Tilton, and a suit by Tilton against Ovington for maintaining a separation between himself and wife.

It will be observed by the report elsewhere published, that Mr. C. P. Ferry has been selected by the Republicans of Pierce county, W. T., to represent that county in the Territorial Legislature. If he should be elected the people of the county will have in him an active and efficient representative. And what is more, he can neither be bought nor humbugged—which is a very essential qualification.

If our reporter of the Conventions in Pierce county, W. T., had been nominated by either of the Conventions we should be ready to lay a small wager on his election. A person who could write the reports of the proceedings of the rival Conventions so closely without getting up a row in his sentences would have no difficulty in securing the votes of both parties on election day.

A SHOCKING ACCIDENT.—Yesterday afternoon, Mr. J. R. Lake, proprietor of the [illegible] foundry, met with a terrible accident which may result fatally. About 3 o'clock Mr. Lake procured a team and started out with the object of procuring a load of sand to use for casting purposes about his foundry. He proceeded as far as Fifteenth street, where he found a large quantity of the desired article. At that point the street passes through a deep cut, the embankment rising on each side to a height of 15 feet or more. From the top of the embankment down for the distance of three or four feet, the soil—a heavy black loam—extends. Between the lower line of the soil and the grade of the street, a thick mass of sand extends. Mr. Lake backed his wagon up close against the embankment, and began to shovel in the sand. At that point the embankment rises almost perpendicular for about fifteen feet. Thought of danger seemed to have never entered the mind of Mr. Lake, or he certainly would not have placed himself in such a position of peril. While engaged in shoveling away the sand at the base of the embankment, several tons of soil at the top became detached and caved in. Fortunately, the noise of the falling mass attracted Mr. Lake's attention and enabled him to partially save himself, for had the earth fallen directly down on him, he would have been crushed to a jelly. He sprang to one side and thus managed to save his life. One leg—the right—was caught under the falling earth and buried completely. The force of the earth bruised his limb very badly and [illegible] the upper end of the femur at the hip joint. As quickly as possible the heap was shoveled away and Mr. Lake released from what came so near proving his living grave. The wagon received the full brunt of the mass and was broken to pieces. A vehicle was procured, on which the unfortunate man was placed and conveyed to his home. Medical assistance was hastily summoned and an examination of the injuries made. Dr. Chapman was called, who summoned [illegible] other physicians for consultation. Of the result of their examinations we are not advised. Mr. Lake's injuries are feared to be of a very serious if not fatal character.

THE ST. JOHNS SHOOTING AFFAIR.—Contrary to the expectation of Mr. Jas. Johns who is involved in the unpleasant shooting affair which occurred at St. Johns, on Saturday evening, no complaint was filed in the Police Court against him. During Sunday he engaged an attorney to defend him, and it was thought yesterday morning that he would be confronted with a complaint, charging him with an attempt on the life of young Loomis, sworn to by some one of the persons who followed on his tracks to this city with threats of personal violence. But no such complaint was filed. At an early hour the District Attorney was notified of the case; that Johns had voluntarily surrendered himself into the custody of the officers, and no complaint was entered against him. As no complaint had been made to the attorney, and no one appeared to testify in the case, that officer was powerless to act. At length it was decided to allow the prisoner to go on his own recognizance until to-day. Meanwhile the District Attorney has sent down to St. John's for witnesses, intending to bring the matter to the judicial notice of the grand jury. If the witnesses arrive to-day, the case will be properly investigated, and indictment [illegible], or Mr. Johns set at liberty. He is at present a voluntary guest at the city jail, preferring to remain under the protection of the officers [illegible] his personal liberty. We learn [illegible] lately from St. Johns as to the condition of young Loomis. The ball took effect in the right hip, instead of the thigh, and [illegible] ward towards the groin, and is thought to have lodged against one of the bones of the pelvis. A physician, we learn, was sent for yesterday to extract the ball. Altogether considered, it was a very unfortunate affair and no one appears to more keenly regret its occurrence than Mr. Johns.

A PHRENOLOGICAL WONDER.—Yesterday evening we had a call from Mr. Archibald R. Rice, of Tama county, Iowa, who gave some examples of a wonderful [illegible] power possessed by him, which he calls mind reading. He professes to be able to tell what another person is thinking about, and some experiments in our presence demonstrated that he really does possess such a power. The person testing him fixes his mind upon some object in the room, and keeps his thoughts there during the entire test. Mr. Rice takes hold of the experimenter's hand, and presses the fingers gently to his own forehead. Then, with his eyes covered, he leads the experimenter to the object he has been thinking of, and places his hand upon it. We could detect no legerdemain, nor any other sleight in the performance, which is truly wonderful. This evening at 7 o'clock he will give an exhibition of this power to the public at the Museum, where any and all who have any curiosity in that direction can witness the performance. We have never been much inclined to countenance this class of performances, as they nearly always smack so strongly of imposture as to be disgusting; but we confess that our scepticism is staggered by this gentleman. It will pay scientific persons to witness his feats, as they present rather a scientific problem than a mere entertainment. Rice does not pretend to be moved by spiritual agencies.

AN ELEGANT DRESS.—Perhaps the finest and most costly dress ever made in this city can now be seen at the show window of the "White House"—Messrs. Lewis & Strauss, proprietors. The expensive material of which this elegant dress is made, was furnished by Messrs. Lewis & Strauss, while to Miss Emma Phillips, the accomplished modiste, belongs the credit of having manufactured the elaborate article of goods. Throughout the dress is made of the richest silk velvet, elegantly trimmed with pure guipure lace, [illegible] with costly beads. Some idea can be formed of the nature of the material and the elaborateness of workmanship, when the price of the article just as it is exhibited is $900. The lace alone cost $20 per yard. The dress was made to order, and in a few days some favored lady will enjoy the enviable distinction of wearing it. For a few days to come the dress will be on exhibition at the show window. Yesterday it was the chief attraction on which centered the admiring gaze of hundreds of feminine eyes. "Oh! isn't it perfectly gorgeous," was the universal ejaculation.

COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION FOR APPOINTMENT TO WEST POINT.—Notice was given some time ago by Senator Nesmith that the appointment as cadet to West Point, would be given to the successful competitor at an examination before a committee consisting of Judge Deady, Dr. Glisan and Dr. Ghiselim. The examination took place last Saturday. Nine applicants presented themselves. Two were excluded on account of physical disability, and one because his parents were not citizens of Oregon. The remaining six stood as follows, 100 being the scale:

Arithmetic	95	80	60	40	40	10
Grammar	72	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]

Spelling	76	72	66	[illegible]	44	40
Oral examination in history and geography	90	90	50	40	[illegible]	[illegible]

The fortunate young man was Edward M. Brooke, eldest son of Lloyd Brooke, Esq., whose general average was 77 3-7. The others were 67 5-7, 64 2-7, 57, 48 6-7, 37 2-7.

NEW STEAM SAWMILL.—[illegible] C. M. Carter and Levi Estes have recently purchased a five acre tract of land situated in the southern end of the city. The tract purchased embraces a portion of the low marshy land lying north of the engine house of the Portland Water Works, and fronting on the river. It is the intention of the purchasers to erect a large saw mill on a portion of this land. We are informed that other gentlemen also propose to erect several manufactories adjoining the mill, and avail themselves of the power, which will be furnished by the owners of the latter at reasonable rates. The mill site has been selected at a point about midway between the upper sawmill and the water [illegible] engine house. Preparations will be commenced at once for the early inauguration of the important enterprise. Work on the [illegible] cannot be commenced until the river reaches its highest stages, so as to enable the pile driver to operate.

AT THE EAST SIDE.—At present there are only two vessels lying at the [illegible] viz: the barks One and Soren Berner. Both are loading with grain and will shortly be ready to sail for their destinations.

We had not intended to say anything further in regard to the base-ball game at Oregon City last Saturday except to state certain points in relation to questions upon which Mr Barker the umpire reserved his decision We did not state that the game had been decided in favor of the Arcadians but merely that they claimed it and we believe justly by four runs [illegible] the College Club [illegible] to play the last half of the ninth inning unless the umpire reversed his decision and called a foul ball a fair one The reporters of the Salem dailies were very much misled or willfully misrepresented the game as the Record and Statesman both contain very glaring misstatements in regard to it Among these in the Record is one that the umpire decided the ball about which the difficulty arose first not a foul and then a foul and finally reserved his decision The statement that the umpire decided it not a foul or that he reserved his decision on that point, is erroneous He decided it a foul while the ball was in the air and after it struck outside the foul flag and when it was brought home and all the time and the point upon which Mr Barker reserved his decision was upon what inning the decision of the game should be made some contending that it should be upon the fifth and others upon the last full inning played No Club before the College has ever thought of claiming a game which they declined to play out except that the Club should be allowed to umpire the game themselves As their own umpire we don t doubt that the College Club can beat the Arcadians or even the Mutuals of Boston but with an impartial umpire never The same paper goes on to say that the umpire showed his bias in favor of the Arcadians in two instances in deciding two outs against the College Club which bystanders clearly saw were wrong' All who know Mr Barker will give no weight to what is thus insinuated against his impartiality We have no interest in the matter except to see that the facts are properly set before the public, nor do we like to see a high minded honorable gentleman as Mr Barker has shown himself to be have his motives impugned and conduct misrepresented The matter was win or lose with the College Club on that ninth inning and if the loss of the game was considered by them worse than the loss of their name for fair dealing, the 'foul with which the Record heads its account is proper for the foul victory the Collegiates claim and fit beginning for the counterfeited score at the wind up which that paper publishes The Statesman is more moderate in its account of the game but was led into some errors quite as bad

Dr. Bergh would immortalize his name as the benefactor of the brute creation if he would visit the various legislatures which will meet this year and get a law passed making it obligatory upon every horse-keeper to use the MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT Nor would the work be difficult because so well is it known and widely used that an ere of [illegible] notification would be sufficient When once introduced it will hold its way right along Besides this Liniment is equally efficacious in human diseases

Henry VI.—People say that our ladies have abominable styles of head dresses What would they think if they could have seen a belle of King Henry s reign A quaint writer says The caul of net work into which the hair had been gathered at the sides of the face, became extended into large squares on each cheek and the veil which was thrown over them gave them the appearance of Horned Head Dresses The horn shape was imparted by means of two wires around which the hair was curled Surely our ladies do not thus outrage good taste but by the use of LYON S KATHAIRON render their looks beautiful and luxuriant

I DESIRE TO FURNISH MY TESTIMONY in behalf of Dr Jayne s excellent medicine the Expectorant I have been troubled with Asthma for over two years and it became so bad last fall and winter that I could not walk over twenty rods without sitting down to rest neither could I perform work of any kind If I chopped wood briskly for five minutes I would fall down for want of breath so firmly had the disease taken hold of me Finally I was persuaded to try the Expectorant and procuring a bottle from Messrs Hawley & Fuller of this place I commenced using it After taking in all four bottles I am now able to do as much work in a day as any man in my neighborhood and my complaint has entirely left me Therefore I cordially recommend this Expectorant to any one troubled with Asthma —HORACE SMEDLEY Fitchburg Mich

Some years ago there was much discussion among experts upon the various Hair Dyes and Cosmetics offered the public It was truthfully claimed that thousands of females were paralyzed by the unguents and powders which unprincipled dealers offered as the means of removing facial disfigurements All such merely covered deformities without infusing health to the skin The only safe beauty restorer is HAGAN S MAGNOLIA BALM.

The fall season has fairly set in, and with it our merchants are opening their new stocks in large quantities Among those who have prepared for the rush, we find those well known clothiers Beck & Waldman, who are not behind any in their selections of fall and winter goods They have studied the present wants of customers, and accordingly have purchased at the lowest figure with the object of affording their patrons the greatest advantages Boys clothing is a specialty with this house and parents should note the fact

Don t pay high prices for Hats while they can be obtained at a reasonable figure Among the latest additions to the stock of JOHN O'NEIL & Co Clothiers, is a complete line of Hats for the fall and winter season They propose to sell them cheaper than the same have been offered heretofore in this city When you need a new tile bear this in mind The high rate of prices are played out and O NEIL & Co can prove it they are opening some new styles in Hats and Clothing Make a note of it before it is too late.

New Attractions.—Very few are acquainted with the fact that JOS KOHN opposite the First National Bank, has just opened a magnificent assortment of Clothing and Furnishing Goods None can but admire the handsome Diagonals the beautiful Beaver Suits, the attractive Cassimeres and other goods now displayed at his large and elegant store He, as well as his clerks are accommodating and will gratify the tastes of all who may chance to call Mr Kohn can please you that is morally certain Now is the time to purchase a fall suit

For Bronchial, Asthmatic and Pulmonary Complaints Brown s Bronchial Troches manifest remarkable curative properties

1874. FALL TRADE 1874.

GRAND EXPOSITION

NEW GOODS,

At the Store of

BRADLEY, MARSH & CO.,

Extensive Shipments to Arrive

Ex "JOHN L. STEPHENS" AND "AJAX."

THE FOLLOWING LETTER, FROM MR MARSH who is now purchasing in the San Francisco market will explain itself

GRAND HOTEL, 7th October 1874

DEAR BRADLEY Arrived safely having had fair average passage Set at once to work. First called on —— Paid them $2,500 on account. Got 3 per cent discount on $1,150 not yet due Mr —— [illegible] well pleased, said they had heard rather unfavorable accounts of us from Portland merchants going ahead too fast selling goods too low ruined the trade etc. Explained the evident animus of such statements Wanted to call round on the other houses before buying but Mr —— would not let me stir—so started in and bought a splendid lot of stuff at really extraordinary low prices. Cleared out 63 pieces of English waterproof and ladies cloth at 95c—regular price $1 20 These we must sell at $1 per yard and beat the wholesale houses they can t touch them at that figure There is a temporary decline in cotton goods so secured 16 cases leading brands muslins and sheetings Sell ing these as usual at cost will give us a splendid advantage over all the other stores. Got a fine lot Bed spreads 20 per cent under regular price In Blankets I made a special hit. The house had 12 bales on consignment and being agents for the —— mills did not wish to exhibit them in competition Bought the lot. You may think this rather stiff but when you see the splendid quality of these goods you will at once concede this a magnificent purchase Mark them low and make a noise Do not let the country storekeepers gobble all these up as they did the last cheap lot keep them for our regular customers Got two job lines in Dress Goods to sell at 25@37½c per yard—30 per cent. less than cost of importing Secured two original cases of the Buffalo brand silk warp Alpacas at agent s rates These range in price from 25c to $1 The time is past with us for buying a piece or two Cleared out several job lines in Flannels Table Linen Napkins, Towels etc at very low Also several other goods that can best be purchased at this house. Dined and wined with Mr ——; Splendid house, magnificently furnished Met ——

Tuesday—Called early on —— Paid our account in full Same story as to reports The fact is, the —— evidently went for us in very blackness of heart but our name is a tower of strength that the shot of accident nor dart of chance can neither graze nor pierce The robbed that smiles steals something from the thief and we can well smile at these attempts to jostle a brother bearing his road on the rough road of life The heavy cash remittances we make regularly turn them all here They say the Portland men are generally long winded' Our getting the Granger trade is also a surprise to many Purchased a fine lot of Shawls Hosiery, Men s Shirts Pants Ladies Merino Vests, Woolen Jackets Trimmings, and all fancy goods at this house They were most anxious to sell and as they made considerable reductions in prices I bought largely Sent you invoices overland Goods go by John L Stephens The shipment from England will arrive by next Panama steamer The Clothing, Hats etc from New York come by mail When all these are opened out our stock will be the finest on the coast. Will back us up to any extent He knows we possess the powers ordained to last. His business has doubled this year This is truly a Golden State with its golden mines golden grain and the golden wealth of living manhood and womanhood pouring in at the rate of three hundred daily from all parts of the civilized and uncivilized world Would that we had railroads to enable us to share this prosperity S L MARSH.
